November 17–December 20

Strozzina, piazza Strozzi, Florence

Organized in collaboration with Lo Schermo dell'Arte, this exhibition features work by a dozen video artists, all born in the 1980s and hailing from Germany, Greece, Cameroon, Nigeria, France and Holland, among others. The show takes a look at the numerous technological and cultural developments that these artists have witnessed and that their work reflects. Special events will take place every Thursday during the exhibition, featuring international guest speakers. For further information, see www.schermodellarte.org/en/visio-2015.
